The organizers of AronaMen 112.9 Triathlon are pleased to announce that Martina Dogana will take part in the third edition of AronaMen 112.9 Triathlon on July 28th.

The triathlete of Triathlon Cremona Stradivari has decided to include Arona in her 2013 schedule and her presence can't but bring prestige to the event on the shores of Lake Maggiore, which over the past two years has met larger and larger approvals.

Martina Dogana is an important name in the international triathlon fields. She won Ironman in Nice in 2008, Ironman 70.3 Italy in 2011 and last year she got the first position at Challenge Vichy. She can boast several participations in important events and she can be definitely seen as one of the ambassadors of the Italian triathlon in the world.
