The fourth edition of the AronaMen 112.9 Triathlon is on Sunday 27 July. The organizers are keeping working to guarantee another stunning edition. Once again the interest of Italian and foreign athletes has been confirmed and more than 600 participants are expected. The race is open to individuals and relay teams. The start of the individual race is at 6.50 a.m., while 10 minutes later it will be time for the relay team start. And after the race the athletes can join the final pasta party. Those who do not have the competitive medical clearance for triathlon yet can ask the organizers to have the visit done in a medical centre near Arona on the Saturday before the race. Six days are left for the discounted fee. On June 16th the entry fee will be slightly increased. Further information on the website
