The entries to the fourth edition of the AronaMen 112.9 Triathlon are about to be closed.

The race takes place in Arona, Lake Maggiore, on July 27th. The athletes who want to take part in the race will have 15 days to register, while the relay team will be given a few days more. Once again this year the foreign athletes have shown their interest for the event, which has confirmed to be one of the Italian races with the highest number of foreign participants. At the moment, about 350 athletes and 40 relay teams have already entered the race. Among the men, the winner of the last year, Luca De Paolis will challenge Massimo Cigana, great cyclist and one of the most popular Italian triathletes in the world. In the women race, Martina Dogana will be at the start line, together with Mary Torre, Luisa Fumagalli and Laura Mazzucco. The winner of last edition Sara Dossena may be in Arona too if her physical conditions allow her to take part in the race. There are still some rooms available in the hotels that agreed to cooperate with the organization. Breakfast will be served from 4.30 in the morning. Contact info@aronamen to book. Availability is about to finish.

THE START HAS BEEN BROUGHT FORWARD TO 6.50 am. The provisional starting list will be published on the official website
